DEFINITION OF "BAD BEAT JACKPOT"

1. The "Bad Beat Jackpot" will be divided in the following manner:
  - (a) 40% to the player with the Bad Beat hand;
  - (b) 20% to the player with the Winning hand;
  - (c) 40% shared equally between all players playing on qualifying tables that have chips on the table at the time the Bad Beat Jackpot is won and that have played at least one hand on those tables prior to such win. This includes both the player that has got the bad beat, and the player with the winning hand.
2. There will be two Jackpot pools comprising the Bad Beat Jackpot, and all of the rake collected for the Bad Beat Jackpot will go into such jackpot pools as follows:
  - (a) all the rake collected for the Bad Beat Jackpot will go into Jackpot A until there is £2,000 in Jackpot A;
  - (b) Thereafter, the rake collected for the Bad Beat Jackpot will be distributed into the Jackpots detailed below:
    - I. Jackpot A will be funded by 60% of the Bad Beat Contribution.
    - II. Jackpot B will be funded by 40% of the Bad Beat Contribution.
  - (c) When the "Bad Beat Jackpot is awarded:
    - I. The Jackpot B will be split into 60% and 40%, becoming the new Jackpot A and Jackpot B;
    - II. 100% of the Bad Beat Contribution will go into the new Jackpot A until there is £2,000 within Jackpot A and thereafter the procedure set out in this condition will be repeated except for the different bad beat hands.
    - III. When the Bad Beat Jackpot is awarded, the Bad Beat hand will reset, regardless how much is the new Bad Beat Jackpot pool.
3. If more than two hands qualify for either the Bad Beat Hand and the Winning Hand, only the two highest-ranking qualifying hands will be considered. All remaining hands will receive a share ONLY. If two hands tie for either the Bad Beat Hand or and the Winning Hand the two players will split the relevant share equally.

4. All pay-outs will be withheld for a 48 hour period, to confirm the Bad Beat Jackpot totals and the legitimacy of the claim.
5. In order to claim a share of the Bad Beat Jackpot, a photo identification or a Player Rewards Card must be provided. If any player is unable to produce either, Jackpot pay-outs will be held at the Cash Desk until such identification is provided.
